Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

- For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax. to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job. or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/ W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note: Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for vourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents.

When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don't qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line G. Other credits. You might be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as the earned income tax credit and tax credits for education and child care expenses. If you do so, your paycheck will be larger but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to determine if you're able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You're not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don't wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don't complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you're entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Forms W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero ("-0-") on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer

Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 8, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn't previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/css/ employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer's name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee's first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer's service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

Box 10. Enter the employer's employer identification number (EIN).

Form IL-W-4

Employee's and other Payee's Illinois Withholding Allowance Certificate and Instructions

Note: These instructions are written for employees to address withholding from wages. However, this form can also be completed and submitted to a payor if an agreement was made to voluntarily withhold Illinois Income tax from other (non-wage) Illinois income.

Who must complete Form IL-W-4?

If you are an employee, you must complete this form so your employer can withhold the correct amount of Illinois Income Tax from your pay. The amount withheld from your pay depends, in part, on the number of allowances you claim on this form.

Even if you claimed exemption from withholding on your federal Form W-4, U.S. Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, because you do not expect to owe any federal income tax, you may be required to have Illinois Income Tax withheld from your pay (see Publication 130, Who is Required to Withhold Illinois Income Tax). If you are claiming exempt status from Illinois withholding, you must check the exempt status box on Form IL-W-4 and sign and date the certificate. Do not complete Lines 1 through 3.

If you are a resident of lowa, Kentucky, Michigan, or Wisconsin, or a military spouse, see Form W-5-NR, Employee's Statement of Nonresidence in Illinois, to determine if you are exempt.

If you do not file a completed Form IL-W-4 with your employer, if you fail to sign the form or to include all necessary information, or if you alter the form, your employer must withhold Illinois Income Tax on the entire amount of your compensation, without allowing any exemptions.

When must I submit this form?

You should complete this form and give it to your employer on or before the date you start work. You must submit Form IL-W-4 when Illinois Income Tax is required to be withheld from compensation that you receive as an employee. You may file a new Form IL-W-4 any time your withholding allowances increase. If the number of your claimed allowances decreases, you must file a new Form IL-W-4 within 10 days. However, the death of a spouse or a dependent does not affect your withholding allowances until the next tax year.

When does my Form IL-W-4 take effect?

If you do not already have a Form IL-W-4 on file with your employer, this form will be effective for the first payment of compensation made to you after this form is filed. If you already have a Form IL-W-4 on file with this employer, your employer may allow any change you file on this form to become effective immediately, but is not required by law to change your withholding until the first payment of compensation is made to you after the first day of the next calendar quarter (that is, January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1) that falls at least 30 days after the date you file the change with your employer.

Example: If you have a baby and file a new Form IL-W-4 with your employer to claim an additional allowance for the baby, your employer may immediately change the withholding for all future payments of compensation. However, if you file the new form on September 1, your employer does not have to change your withholding until the first payment of compensation is made to you after October 1. If you file the new form on September 2, your employer does not have to change your withholding until the first payment of compensation made to you after December 31.

How long is Form IL-W-4 valid?

Your Form IL-W-4 remains valid until a new form you have submitted takes effect or until your employer is required by the Department to disregard it. Your employer is required to disregard your Form IL-W-4 if

- you claim total exemption from Illinois Income Tax withholding, but you have not filed a federal Form W-4 claiming total exemption, or
- the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has instructed your employer to disregard your federal Form W-4.

What is an "exemption"?

An "exemption" is a dollar amount on which you do not have to pay Illinois Income Tax that you may claim on your Illinois Income tax return.

What is an "allowance"?

The dollar amount that is exempt from Illinois Income Tax is based on the number of allowances you claim on this form. As an employee, you receive one allowance unless you are claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return (e.g., your parents claim you as a dependent on their tax return). If you are married, you may claim additional allowances for your spouse and any dependents that you are entitled to claim for federal income tax purposes. You also will receive additional allowances if you or your spouse are age 65 or older, or if you or your spouse are legally blind.

Note: For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2017, the personal exemption allowance, and additional allowances if you or your spouse are age 65 or older, or if you or your spouse are legally blind, may not be claimed on your Form IL-1040 if your adjusted gross income for the taxable year exceeds $500,000 for returns with a federal filing status of married filing jointly, or $250,000 for all other returns. You may complete a new Form IL-W-4 to update your exemption amounts and increase your Illinois withholding.

How do I figure the correct number of allowances?

Complete the worksheet on the back of this page to figure the correct number of allowances you are entitled to claim. Give your completed Form IL-W-4 to your employer. Keep the worksheet for your records.

Note If you have more than one job or your spouse works, your withholding usually will be more accurate if you claim all of your allowances on the Form IL-W-4 for the highest-paying job and claim zero on all of your other IL-W-4 forms.

How do I avoid underpaying my tax and owing a penalty?

You can avoid underpayment by reducing the number of allowances or requesting that your employer withhold an additional amount from your pay. Even if your withholding covers the tax you owe on your wages, if you have non-wage income that is taxable, such as interest on a bank account or dividends on an investment, you may have additional tax liability. If you owe more than $500 tax at the end of the year, you may owe a late-payment penalty or will be required to make estimated tax payments. For additional information on penalties see Publication 103, Uniform Penalties and Interest. Visit our website at tax.illinois.gov to obtain a copy.

Information about Social Security Form SSA-1945 Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security

New legislation [Section 419(c) of Public Law 108-203, the Social Security Protection Act of 2004] requires State and local government employers to provide a statement to employees hired January 1, 2005 or later in a job not covered under Social Security. The statement explains how a pension from that job could affect future Social Security benefits to which they may become entitled.

Form SSA-1945, Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security, is the document that employers should use to meet the requirements of the law. The SSA-1945 explains the potential effects of two provisions in the Social Security law for workers who also receive a pension based on their work in a job not covered by Social Security. The Windfall Elimination Provision can affect the amount of a worker's Social Security retirement or disability benefit. The Government Pension Offset Provision can affect a Social Security benefit received as a spouse, surviving spouse, or an ex-spouse.

Employers must:

- . Give the statement to the employee prior to the start of employment;
- . Get the employee's signature on the form; and
- Submit a copy of the signed form to the pension paying agency.

Social Security will not be setting any additional guidelines for the use of this form.

Copies of the SSA-1945 are available online at the Social Security website, www.socialsecurity.gov/online/ssa-1945.pdf. Paper copies can be requested by email at ofsm.oswm.rqct.orders@ssa.gov or by fax at 410-965-2037. The request must include the name, complete address and telephone number of the employer. Forms will not be sent to a post office box. Also, if appropriate, include the name of the person to whom the forms are to be delivered. The forms are available in packages of 25. Please refer to Inventory Control Number (ICN) 276950 when ordering.

Sick Leave Bank

Purpose

The purpose of Sick Leave Bank is to provide extended sick leave to members who incur a period of prolonged personal illness or hospitalization and whose personal sick leave is exhausted.

Enrollment in the Sick Leave Bank

Any full-time employee shall be eligible to participate in the Sick Leave Bank. A new employee may enroll within thirty (30) days of the effective date of employment. Current employees who are not members of the Sick Leave Bank may enroll during open enrollment which begins at the start of each school year and ends September 1st.

Employees who elect to participate in the Sick Leave Bank shall contribute one (1) day of leave from their accrued sick leave. Membership in the Sick Leave Bank is considered continuous unless written notice of withdrawal of membership is received during the open enrollment period. Donations of sick leave to the Bank are not refundable or transferable.

Guidelines

- An Employee on leave is not eligible to be granted days from the Bank during the leave year nor will that employee be asked to contribute to the Bank during the leave year.
- A prolonged illness is one which is confirmed in writing by the attending physician. It is expected that such documentation should be in sufficient detail and would also provide a prognosis estimating the expected recovery period. This written documentation must be filed with Mr. Greg Dietz, Assistant Superintendent, at the time of application for days from the Bank.
- For the Bank to cover absence because of prolonged illness or hospitalization, all accumulated sick leave must first be exhausted. Certified staff members must then have five (5) days of salary deduction, support staff members will have a two (2) day salary deduction of. The next consecutive day of absence is the first day covered by the provisions of the Bank. An eligible teacher may withdraw from the bank a specific number of days equal to the number of personally-accumulated sick days recorded on the teacher's account as of the first day of the school year up to a maximum of 90 days per year. Support staff members may withdraw up to 30 days from the Sick Leave Bank.
- Application for days from the Bank shall be made by using the appropriate Sick Leave Bank Application Form which is available from the Benefits Coordinator at 847.692.8035. The completed form shall be submitted to Mary Phillips, the Benefits Coordinator, approximately a week before the last day of accumulated sick leave is to be used.
- Upon receipt of the necessary documentation from the attending physician and the application form, the administrative designee will notify the chairman of the Advisory Board that an application has been made. Immediately thereafter, the Advisory Board and the administrative designee will convene to review the application and prepare a recommendation to the Superintendent. Upon approval by the Superintendent, the employee will receive days from the Bank. The days will be retroactively applied to the first day covered by the provisions of the Bank to a maximum of ninety (90) days for Certified Staff thirty (30) days for Support Staff or until the employee is released to work by the attending physician, whichever occurs first.
- During the period of prolonged illness or hospitalization, the administration may require written statements by the attending physician.

Types of Beneficiaries

The member may designate a beneficiary to receive survivor benefits. If this individual is a dependent beneficiary, then he or she is eligible to receive either monthly benefits or a lump-sum payment. However, if the member designates a nondependent beneficiary, only a lump-sum benefit is payable. Monthly benefits cannot be paid to dependent beneficiaries if a nondependent beneficiary is also designated and survives the member.

Dependent beneficiary. A spouse to whom the member has been married for at least one year, except where a child is born of the marriage in which case the qualifying period is not applicable; a civil union partner to whom the member has been partnered for at least one year; an unmarried natural or adopted child under 18, or between ages 18 and 22 if he or she is a full-time student in an accredited educational institution, or an unmarried child of any age who is dependent by reason of a physical or mental disability; a dependent parent who received from the member at least half of his or her support for the 12-month period immediately prior to the member's death.

Nondependent beneficiary. Any other designated person or entity who is not a dependent beneficiary.

Types of Benefits

Beneficiary Refund. This benefit is only payable upon death. The member cannot elect to receive this benefit. This refund includes a return of the member's retirement contributions, statutorily required interest on the retirement contributions, and member contributions paid toward the annual increases in annuity. This refund is payable: to a designated beneficiary; if no beneficiary is designated, to the surviving spouse or civil union partner; or if no one is designated and there is no surviving spouse or civil union partner, to the member's estate. After retirement, this amount is reduced by the amount of retirement benefit payments made to the member.

Survivor Benefits. A beneficiary is eligible to receive a lump-sum survivor benefit if the member's death occurs during TRS-covered employment or in the 12-month period immediately following the last day of earnings, while on a creditable leave of absence, or while receiving disability benefits.

A dependent beneficiary may also be eligible to receive monthly survivor benefits if certain requirements are met by the member before death.

Please visit the TRS Web site, trs.illinois.gov, for answers to frequently asked questions or for more copies of this form (fillable online).

For instructions on designating a trust, please contact TRS.

A Qualified Illinois Domestic Relations Order (QILDRO) on file with TRS when the member dies may affect distribution of survivor benefits. For more information about QILDROs, please consult the QILDRO publication available on the TRS Web site.

As with all TRS benefits, death and survivor benefits must be paid in accordance with the Pension Code, 40 ILCS 5/16. If there is any discrepancy between the information on this form and applicable law, the law controls.

Policy 6630 - Statutory Requirement that School Personnel Report

Suspected Cases of Child Abuse and Neglect

Policy 6510 - Use of District Technology

I, the undersigned employee of Maine Township High School District 207, hereby acknowledge my duty as an employee of the District to report any cases of suspected child abuse or neglect.

I understand that I will become a mandated reporter under the Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act (III, Rev. Stat. 1985, Ch. 23, Pars. 2051 et seq.) This means that I am required to report or cause a report to be made to the Child Abuse Hotline Number (1-800-25A-BUSE) whenever I have reasonable cause to believe that a child known to me in my capacity as an employee of District 207 may be abused or neglected. I understand that there is no charge when calling the Hotline number and that the Hotline operates 24-hours per day, 7 days per week, 365 days per year.

I understand that an abused or neglected child means any student under the age of 18 who is abused by a parent, immediate family member, any person responsible for the child's welfare, including another employee of the District, or any individual residing in the same home as the child or a paramour of the child's parent.

I further understand that "abuse" includes the infliction (whether intentional or negligent) of physical injury that causes death, disfigurement, impairment of physical or emotional health, or loss of any bodily function. Abuse also is defined as creating a substantial risk of physical injury to such child or committing or allowing to be committed any sex offense against such child, committing or allowing to be committed an act or acts of torture upon such child or inflicting successive corporal punishment.

"Neglect" means abandonment or withholding or denying nourishment or medically indicated treatment including food or care or other remedial care recognized under state laws as necessary for a child's well-being or other care necessary for his or her well-being, including adequate food, clothing or shelter.

I understand that any school district personnel who report a suspected case of child abuse or neglect have complete legal immunity if the report was made in good faith. The name of the reporter is kept confidential. Also, any school district personnel who willfully fail to report a case of abuse or neglect to the DCFS are guilty of a Class A misdemeanor and subject to a $1,000 fine or up to one year in prison, or both. Any school district personnel who knowingly transmit a false report to the DCFS are guilty of disorderly conduct and may be fined up to and including $3,000.

I acknowledge receiving and reading District 207's policy on child abuse reporting. I further acknowledge that I have received District 207's policy on prohibition of employee use of drug and alcohol and District 207's sexual harassment policy.

MAINE TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT 207 USE OF DISTRICT TECHNOLOGY

6510.1 Introduction

The primary purpose of the District 207 electronic communications network (D207net) and technologies which attach to it is to support and enhance learning and teaching that prepares students for success in an information society. These technologies include all computer hardware, software, and network infrastructure owned or operated by District 207 including its internal network, portals, and/or online resources. Use of the system is defined as obtaining access to any D207 technology, software, or services regardless of the technical device, and regardless of whether or not the device is owned or operated by the district. Students, staff, and guests in District 207 who are provided with access to networks (including the Internet), D207net, and other technologies by the District shall be governed by the following policy.

The Internet is a network of networks connecting millions of computer users all over the world. This network enables worldwide connection to e-mail, discussion groups, databases, software, file storage and other information resources, such as libraries and museums. District 207 may provide network access to promote educational excellence in District 207 schools by facilitating resource sharing, innovation, and communication. District 207 firmly believes that the valuable information and interaction available on networks far outweigh the possibility that users may procure material that is not consistent with the educational goals of District 207. The use of D207net is a privilege, not a right, which may be revoked at any time for inappropriate behavior.

Users have no expectation of privacy in their use of D207net. D207 has the right to access, review, copy, delete, or disclose, as allowed by law, any digitally recorded information stored in, or passed through D207net, regardless of the initial intentions of the user. D207 has the right and responsibility to monitor the use of D207net by its users including tracking of internet, network, hardware, and software use. Employees should be aware that any digitally recorded information, even that of personal nature, can be subject to disclosure under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act. Users assume responsibility for understanding the policy and guidelines as a condition of using the network. Staff members are accountable to teach and use the network responsibly. Use of the network that is inconsistent with this policy may result in loss of access as well as other disciplinary or legal action. Any use of D207net during or after the school day by any student, staff member, or guest that disrupts educational process or goals of the institution is prohibited.

6510.2 Philosophy

1. Risk:

It is impossible to control all materials on the network. Sites accessible via D207net, particularly networks not under District control, might contain material that is illegal, defamatory, obscene, inaccurate or controversial. With global access to computers and people, there is a risk that students may access material that might not be considered to be of educational value in the context of the school setting. No technology is guaranteed to be 100% error free or dependable. The District makes no warrantees of any kind for the service it is providing. The District is not liable or responsible for: 1) any information that may be lost, damaged or unavailable due to technical or other difficulties; 2) the accuracy or suitability of any information that is retrieved through technology; 3) breaches of confidentiality; or 4) defamatory material.

2. Users responsible:

Students and staff should use District technology in a responsible, efficient, ethical, and legal manner in accordance with the District 207 mission. Network users, like traditional library users, are responsible for their actions in accessing available resources. The user is responsible for making sure any information received does not contain pornographic or indecent material, inappropriate information, inappropriate language, or files that are potentially dangerous to the integrity of the hardware/software on school premises. The user is not permitted to install any software that may be used to circumvent network or computer security or to violate any of these policies or break any law.

6510.3 Acceptable use:

All users of the D207net must comply with the District's Acceptable Use Policy (AUP), as amended periodically.

D207net access may be used to improve learning and teaching consistent with the educational mission of District 207. District 207 expects legal, ethical, and efficient use of the network. These policies apply equally to District technology including but not limited to: network services, hardware, software, and other related services currently deployed or to be deployed in the future.

1. Access:

District 207 may issue network accounts to provide access to network resources. The use of the D207net is a part of the curriculum and not a public forum for general use. Incidental personal use of District 207 technologies should be minimized.

2. Privilege:

Use of a personal D207net account, once issued, is a privilege, not a right.

3. Subject to System Administration:

All D207net account usage is subject to examination or investigation as needed without prior notification or consent of the user. All users of the D207net should recognize that mail use, storage capacity or evening/night/weekend access might be limited for technical reasons. Network administrators may review files and communications to maintain system integrity and to ensure that users including students and staff members are using the system responsibly. Users should not expect that e-mail or files stored on District servers will be private. Employees should be aware that any digitally recorded information, even that of a personal nature, and/or documented use of D207net may be inspected and could be subject to public disclosure under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act. All users of D207net are guaranteed no level of privacy for any digital information stored or passed through D207net. The content of any digitally recorded information might be cause for disciplinary proceedings.

6510

4. Retention Policy:

The District may retain all digital information, including all e-mail correspondence, indefinitely. This does not guarantee the storage or integrity of all digitally recorded information.

6510.4 Inappropriate Use:

Inappropriate use includes, but is not limited to, those uses that violate the law, are inconsistent with District 207's educational mission, disrupt the educational process, interfere with an employee's performance or work responsibility, that are not in accord with this policy, or that hamper the integrity or security of D207net or any external networks to which D207net are connected. No type of computing device can be used by anyone, including students, staff, or guests, in any manner that disrupts the educational environment or violates the rights of others, including using the device to take photographs in locker rooms or bathrooms, cheat, unlawful purposes, bully, harass, or otherwise violate staff or student conduct rules. Prohibited conduct also specifically includes, without limitation, creating, sending, sharing, viewing, receiving, or possessing an indecent visual depiction of oneself or another person through the use of an electronic computing device, mobile or otherwise. Any use of a mobile computing device on school grounds, during or after the school day by any student, staff member, or guest that disrupts educational process, goals of the institution, or violates the acceptable use policy is prohibited.

The use of personal electronic devices that attach to the District's secure network is only permitted in the following instances:

The Technology Department must pre-approve any device before an attempt is made to attach it to the network. Approval will be based on the following requirements:

- Is the device needed for an educational purpose that cannot be provided with District equipment?
- Can the device be properly inspected by technology for worms/viruses, hacker software and software or files that in any way violate federal or state law or other provisions of these policies.

The device must be provided to the Technology Department at least one week prior to the planned use so that it can be evaluated. Users cannot attach certain classes of devices by their nature to the network. These include switches, hubs, routers and wireless access points. This regulation applies to any device that connects to the network, including but not limited to cellular telephone, video recording device, personal digital assistant (PDA), electronic paging device, portable gaming system, digital audio or video system, cellular phone, or any other tethered or mobile electronic computing device.

The use of any electronic device to record and/or transmit audio and/or images will not be allowed unless it is part of the curriculum supervised by a teacher or otherwise approved by the Administration. Other devices that do not require a network connection may be governed in other District policies. These include but are not limited to: cell phones, IM (Instant Messaging) devices, text messaging devices, and calculators with advanced communications functions. In addition, any devices for taking pictures and videos or recording audio whether it be stand alone, on a phone, mobile computing device, or wireless, all require advanced approval before they can be used.

Users of D207net may record after school asl long as they are following this and other District policies with regard to permissions from their students, and if necessary the student's family, they do not need to have approval to record images, video or sound.

1. Commercial Use:

Use for non-school sponsored private or commercial, income-generating, financial gain or "for-profit" activities or product advertisement or solicitation purposes or fraud is prohibited.

2. Harassment:

Harassment, threatening, intimidating, bullying, or demeaning an individual, or group of individuals because of sex, color, race, religion, disability, national origin, or sexual orientation is prohibited.

3. Profanity or Obscenity:

Users are not allowed to access, retrieve, or view obscene, profane, or indecent materials. "Indecent Materials" are those materials which, in context depict, or describe sexual activities or organs in terms patently offensive, as measured by contemporary community standards. "Obscene materials" are those materials which, taken as a whole, appeal to the prurient interest in sex, which portray sexual conduct in a patently offensive way in which, taken as a whole, do not have any serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value. Use of profanity or obscenity is prohibited, and all users shall use language appropriate for school situations.

4. Offensive or Inflammatory Speech:

Users must respect the rights of others, both in the local community and the network at large. Sharing personal information or personal attacks are an unacceptable use of D207net. If a user is the victim of an inappropriate communication, the incident shall be brought to the attention of a teacher or system administrator.

5. Vandalism/Mischief:

Vandalism and mischief are prohibited. Vandalism is defined to include any attempt to harm or destroy data of another user, on the network or on any networks that are connected to D207net or physical damage to District technology. This includes, but is not limited to, the deliberate creation and/or propagation of computer viruses. Mischief includes interference with the work of other users and is prohibited. Any action that disrupts or interferes with the ability of the D207net to carry out its intended function may be considered mischief.

6. User ID violations:

Once an account is issued to a user, that user is responsible for all actions taken while using that account. Sharing an account with another person, or disclosing another individual's password, is prohibited. Concealing or misrepresenting one's identity while using D207net is prohibited. Every user is responsible for all inappropriate uses of the user's account by any other person. All users must exercise extreme caution with their passwords. Passwords must be secure (at least seven characters, one character that is not a letter or number, no simple words or names, nothing easily guessed). Passwords that use two words separated by a nonalphanumeric character are good i.e. cub$anto. Logging on, or attempting to log on, in the name or account of another person or entity is prohibited. If a user suspects that any account on the D207net has been compromised it is their responsibility to immediately contact the network manager.

7. Electronic Mail Violations:
