Taxpayer Interest Cost on Bonds is Projected to be $46 Million Less than Originally Anticipated

When taxpayers in Maine Township High School District 207 approved the sale of bonds to replace outdated plumbing, electrical and mechanical systems, it was anticipated and shared with voters that the borrowing rate for the bonds would be at 4.54%. With two-thirds of the bonds sold recently, the rate for those bonds was much lower at 2.92%.

The remaining bonds are estimated to be sold in 2022 and the total estimated savings to the taxpayers is $46.8 million in interest costs.
